What you get

A replacement admission certificate states:

- your name at the time of admission
- your SRA number
- your admission date

If you were admitted before 1 October 2009, the replacement certificate may not be in the same format as the original.

Who can apply

- Solicitors admitted to the roll of solicitors in England and Wales can apply for a replacement admission certificate.
- We cannot accept requests for replacement admission certificates from third parties.

Fee

There is no fee for a replacement admission certificate.
