Join our online conference to get the key info on qualifying work experience

01 March 2023

Those looking to learn more about qualifying work experience (QWE) should join our virtual Solicitors Qualifying Examination (SQE) conference.

This free event takes place on Thursday 23 March and involves key players from our Education and Training team, our assessment provider Kaplan, and other stakeholders from the legal world.

We will be talking about, among other things, the results of our QWE perception survey, while there will also be a session looking at the latest insights on work experience and the opportunities it offers to employers.

Other items on the agenda are:

- the headlines from the first SQE annual reports from our assessment provider, Kaplan and our SQE Independent Reviewer
- insights from the assessments, including practice areas in which candidates are performing better and worse
- answers to common questions from candidates
