Reasons/basis

This notification relates to a Decision to prosecute before the Solicitors Disciplinary Tribunal. This is an independent Tribunal which will reach its own decision after considering all the evidence, including any evidence put forward by the Solicitor. The Tribunal has certified that there is a case to answer in respect of allegations which are or include matters arising from the handling of a conveyancing matter including, failing to carry out adequate enquiries, failing to adequately advise his clients as to the risks and consequences of the sale, and failing to obtain his clients' consent in respect of instructions.

The allegations are subject to a Hearing before the Solicitors Disciplinary Tribunal and are as yet unproven.
